

God Locked Out

The stock market has displayed deep volatility.
The national debt has soared to trillions.
The prospect of tough taxation is out of sight.
The National Day of Prayer has been declared unconstitutional.

The president states that we are no longer a Christian country.

God is locked out of the schools and government.

But, HE has written the last chapter and we have read it!!!

He showed his hand as seen in this GLIMMER OF GUATEMALA.

Our 3 crusades in Guatemala were held outside. The first was in a very hot climate on a soccer field. The second was at an altitude of 8,000 feet with temperatures dipping down to the high 30's in the town plaza. I wore my Long Johns, suit, overcoat...and still froze!

The third was in a tent in the lowlands in a semi tropical climate. The pastor lives in a one room adobe house with dirt floors. Our meal at his house after the first crusade meeting was the typical rice and beans, accompanied by a piece of meat which simulated a rubber tire! They served us no knives, so we had to pick up the meat in our nimble fingers, try to bite off little pieces, and chew forever!

Along with my two Latin team mates, we managed to eat about 1/3 of it and then gave up.

Let me quickly add that those poor people gave us their best, bless their hearts.

We presented the gospel to 2,563 Guatemalans, of whom 146 received Christ!

My heart was also warmed to meet a good number of people who had professed faith in our Savior 32 years ago during a crusade in that area!

Thank you for sending me to this land of volcanoes where the Grace of God erupted in so many hearts!
